SCHOOL VALUE - COURAGE

DEAR FAMILIES,

It's been another busy week at Mayland, with school trips, Year 6 production rehearsals, assemblies and meeting our new September 2024 intake too. Being busy and giving our children experiences is what makes Maylandsea so special. Next week, the children will look forward to next year by having their transition sessions, meeting their new teachers and seeing their new classrooms. We will send information about the classes to you next week.

YEAR 3 TRIP TO COLCHESTER ZOO

For part of their topic on Rainforests, Hedgehog class visited Colchester Zoo on Tuesday, the weather did not dampen the experience for them and they had a wonderful time seeing the animals and learning more about the rainforests. The team at Colchester zoo, reported that they're prior knowledge and their behaviour was exemplary. Well done Hedgehog.

YEAR 1 LADYBIRD TRIP TO SEA LIFE CENTRE

On Thursday, Ladybird class visited the Sealife Centre in Southend for part of their topic learning about the seaside. Fortunately, the weather was kind and they had a 'whale' of a time!

EYFS CLASS ASSEMBLY

On Thursday Bumblebee class led the class assembly, sharing the story of the very hungry caterpillar. It was the perfect assembly which represented the journey they have made throughout their first year at school, blossoming into wonderful individuals ready for the next step in their learning Journey! Watch out Year 1...Here they come!

SPORTING NEWS

You may have seen on Class Dojo that the athletics team did brilliantly at the Dengie Sports this week, coming 1st overall. This means Maylandsea are double winners this year, winning both the Dengie and MAT sports! Well done team a fantastic achievement! Huge thanks to Mrs Foster, Mrs Guilfoyle and Mrs Clark for all their time in training, selecting and supporting the children at the events.

YEAR 6 PRODUCTION

Next week Year 6 will be performing their leavers production of Matilda to the school on Monday and to parents on Tuesday and Thursday. Tickets are available for Year 6 parents from the office.

Enjoying and Achieving Together
Mrs James
